

THE PALESTINE YEARBOOK OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

Call for Papers (Vol. XXI, 2019)

The Palestine Yearbook of International Law is now inviting submissions of scholarly articles for publication for its next volume, XXII (2019). This is a general call for papers.

As such, the editors encourage the submission of scholarly pieces of relevance to public international law, including but not necessarily in relation to Palestine and the Palestinian people.

The Yearbook is published in the English language, is edited at Birzeit University's Institute of Law (Birzeit, Palestine), and published by Martinus Nijhoff Publishers (The Hague, The Netherlands). The Editor-in-Chief of the Yearbook is Mr. Ardi Imseis.

The Yearbook is now accepting abstracts for review. Abstracts should include a working title, with a preliminary outline of the author's research and arguments, along with a current CV.

Important Dates and Contact Information

Prospective authors should express interest by e-mailing an abstract (of under 750 words) of the suggested paper as indicated above, along with a CV by June 15, 2019 (extended from April 15, 2019). If full manuscripts are available by that date, prospective authors should feel free to send those instead by that date.

All submissions should be made to:

- Ms. Reem Al-Botmeh: rbotmeh@birzeit.edu and iol.pyil@birzeit.edu; and
- Mr. Ata Hindi: atahindi@yahoo.com.

For more on the Palestine Yearbook of International Law, see:

<http://www.brill.com/publications/palestine-yearbook-international-law>.